TITLE OF POSITION: Director of Programs and Development
CLASSIFICATION: Regular, Full Time, Exempt
SUPERVISION: Executive Director
LOCATION: NIYC's Albuquerque Offices
SALARY: $60,000 to $80,000

Reporting to, and in collaboration with, the NIYC Executive Director, the Director of Programs and Development will be responsible for the success of NIYC programs, ensuring seamless team management, program design and implementation, program delivery, and quality control and evaluation. S/he will work closely with the Executive Director to ensure that NIYC has the financial resources it needs to fulfill its mission through the development of diverse and sustained revenue streams and sources that meet the goals and objectives of the NIYC strategic plan. Additionally, in the absence of the Executive Director, s/he has authority to manage the day-to-day operations of NIYC.

This position is funded 20% through NIYC General Funds and 80% through NIYC's WIOA Workforce Grant.

NIYC COMMUNITY PROGRAMS & DEVELOPMENT (20%) The Director of Programs and Development (Director) works with the Executive Director to ensure that the organization has the revenue and funding streams necessary to fulfill NIYC's mission and vision as outlined in its organizational strategic plan. This includes assisting in fundraising, grantwriting, and other revenue generating activities. S/he will identify and cultivate donors and funders, and maintain healthy relationships with them. Additionally, s/he provides outreach and often fulfills a public relations role in addition to office-based work. S/he will assist with the development and maintenance of communications such as an annual report, development reports, the organizational website, social media, newsletters, and donor databases.

The Director will also develop new and implement existing NIYC community programming and projects. S/he will make sure all deliverables are completed in a timely fashion, that required reports, to funders and to the NIYC Board and other key stakeholders, are completed and submitted as required. S/he will be responsible for adhering to and complying with program budgets and ensuring funding is properly expended and accounted for.

NIYC'S WIOA PROGRAM (80%) The Director works closely with the Executive Director in the overall administration and oversight of all aspects of the NIYC's WIOA grant program.

The majority of the Director's time will be focused on coordinating and overseeing the daily program operations of all three (3) WIOA Field Offices and their program staff. As Director, s/he helps determine the goals, objectives, and performance targets for the overall WIOA program and each of the three field offices. S/he works collaboratively and conjointly with the other field office managers and monitors all field office program activities to ensure that the program services, mandatory progress and financial reporting, and data reporting requirements are being satisfactorily met and in a timely fashion.

S/he, at the direction of the Executive Director, supervises and manages all WIOA program staff and ensures that all NIYC policies are complied with, in addition to the federal Department of Labor's (DOL) WIOA program agreement, requirements, and all applicable regulations and policies. S/he recruits and interviews candidates for vacant WIOA positions in the Albuquerque and other Field Offices (in conjunction with the relevant Field Office Manager) and recommends final candidates to the Executive Director for hire.

S/he trains and evaluates WIOA program staff annually. In doing so, s/he determines field office program staff's objectives and performance measures and also ensures that field office staff receive appropriate career development and mentoring.

As Director, s/he, along with the Executive Director, develops the overall WIOA program budget. S/he is responsible for overseeing the field office budgets and to ensure that budgets are managed appropriately to keep costs on target, requesting modifications when, and if, needed, jointly with the Executive Director. S/he completes and submits all required WIOA financial reports for review and approval by the Executive Director, and submits them in a satisfactory and timely manner, meeting required deadlines.

S/he, and the Executive Director, are responsible for and encouraged to reach out to and develop linkages with relevant Native American and non-Native community service providers and other key stakeholders in the local and regional area, in order to form partnerships and collaborations that leverage NIYC resources while maximizing the programming services NIYC provides to its WIOA participants.

As Director, s/he is expected to collaborate with other WIOA Indian and Native American grantees in the region and at national events, as requested by the Division of Indian and Native American Programs/Department of Labor, and as approved by the Executive Director.

S/he, with the assistance of the MIS Specialist, maintains statistical data on customers and organization projects, collects and analyzes data, and prepares all WIOA required reports and presents them to the Executive Director for approval before submitting them to the funding agency.

S/he assists the Executive Director in the preparation and submission of all WIOA grant applications and requests for funding. In carrying out this task, s/he works closely with the Executive Director in the drafting of the required WIOA program strategic plan, completion of supporting documentation, and development of required budget documents.
